

Indian Aerobiological Society (IAS) is a scientific body constituted for the advancement of Aerobiology, Allergology, Immunology, Palynology, Plant Pathology, Biochemistry, Geology, Climatology, Biopollution and allied subjects. The Society was founded in 31st January 1980 in an International Workshop on “Modern trends in Aerobiology with special reference to Plant Pathology and Medicine” held from 29 – 31 January at Bose Institute with its Head Office at Department of Botany (now Division of Plant Biology), Bose Institute, Kolkata. The Society was formed as a scientific body with Prof. Sunirmal Chanda of the Bose Institute as its Founder President and Prof. S.T.Tilak of Marathawada University, Aurangabad as Vice-President and Prof. S.N. Agashe of Bangalore University as its Secretary with a view to bring together Scientists of the country and with the broad objectives of promoting development of Aerobiology in India in all its aspects and in the widest perspective. The IAS was affiliated by the International Association for Aerobiology (IAA).

There are more than 450 members, including professional and corporate personnel, upcoming aerobiologists with varied interests including plant pathology, allergology, immunology, palynology, taxonomy, ecology, and molecular biology. All the Life Members receive a copy of “Indian Journal of Aerobiology” published under the auspices of Indian Aerobiological Society. Membership is open to all interested in aerobiological research. The Life Member subscription is Rs. 3500 + 100 Admission fees. Subscription is to be sent to the Secretary-Treasurer of Indian Aerobiological Society, Prof. J.K. Tidke, Department of Botany, Sant Gadge Baba Amravati, University, Amravati- 444602, Maharashtra (Mail: jaikirantidke@sgbau.ac.in/ jaikirantidke@rediffmail.com).

Manuscripts for publication and books for review may be sent to Chief Editor, Prof. Swati Gupta Bhattacharya, Division of Plant Biology, Bose Institute, 93/1 Acharya P.C. Road, Kolkata-700009 (Mail- swati@jcbose.ac.in ).
